

Unacceptable Behaviour Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The University is committed to providing a fair, consistent and accessible service for all students. We must also provide a safe working environment for our staff, and ensure that our work is undertaken in an efficient and effective manner. It is recognised that people may act out of character in times of trouble or distress, however, the University will not tolerate behaviour which is deemed to be unacceptable and action will be taken to protect staff.

2. Scope

- 2.1 The Unacceptable Behaviour Policy is primarily applicable, but not limited to the following policies and procedures: Student Complaints, Academic Appeals, Academic Misconduct, Disciplinary Procedures, Fitness to Practise Policy, Communication with Third Parties Policy.
- 2.2 The term 'Student' includes alumni. Third parties are not usually permitted to liaise with the University on behalf of a Student see [Communication with Third Parties Policy], however on occasions when the University discusses a case with a third party, for good reason, this policy will apply to them.
- 2.3 The University's definition of 'unacceptable behaviour' might include, but is not necessarily restricted to, cases in which there is clear evidence that the student
